Phrasal verbs

Verbo + particella = un verbo nuovo

Verbo + particella (up, down, out, off…) formano un verbo nuovo, spesso con un significato diverso. I madrelingua li usano di continuo.

Tre tipi

Tipo	Esempio	Regola
Senza oggetto	The band showed up late.	Non si separa.
Separabile	Turn up the music. / Turn the music up. / Turn it up.	Con un pronome (it, them, me) la particella va dopo il pronome.
Inseparabile	I'm looking for my sticks. / Look after your drums.	L'oggetto va sempre dopo la particella.

Con i pronomi: Turn it down, mai Turn down it. Pick me up, mai Pick up me.
